this, the 1943 Sentinel,
is dedicated

to you over there now,
whose faces may be in shadow
because you put down your books to fight for a better world
and to you not yet initiated into this grim group
because some of your faces, too,
will live only in memory
but to you who return
some day in the bright tomorrow
take down this book
and once more
be back at Montana. . . .

Ernest O. Melby,
president
Montana State University

Administrative conference: Speer and Melby.

R. H. Jesse, dean of the faculty.

C. W. Leaphart, university vice-president.

Dr. Melby swept into his second year as president of the University with banners flying, nobly bucked the obstacles involved in running an educational institution in wartime. He inspired students to stay in school in spite of the war, handed progressive educators a thrill by giving them more co-operation than they had received in the U's history. Guided by E. O. and his able deans, the University stayed conspicuously alive, continued all of its schools, still sported more males than females in its depleted student body. The administration showed its truest colors when the army air corps detachment moved in. The efficiency displayed in arranging for their housing and training was no less than remarkable. . . .

Governor Sam Ford, president,
state board of education.

Where the line forms.

J. B. Speer, registrar.

F. K. Badgley, auditor.

Mary Elrod Ferguson, dean of women

The financial obligations of MSU's scholars to their alma mater are handled by Mr. Badgley and the business office, while Registrar Speer and his staff have the tough task of issuing grades and keeping complete records of students and their courses of study. Deans Miller and Ferguson ably attend to the personal problems of their charges, keep tab on their activities and souls. Did a neat job of rehousing men and coeds when the incoming army made evacuation of all residence halls necessary.

Burly Miller, dean of men.

The Seniors

. . . consist of philosophical draft-dodging males, aging career-bound females. Now the four-year plan is completed; the old guard resigneth and maketh way for the new. And so the big-shots take a powder, mull over their accomplishments—Mortar Board, Silent Sentinel, the power in the high places . . . Theirs is no story-book graduation, but one into the arms of the draft board or a war plant. It's all over now. . . .

... Hesser, Bukvich, MacLeod, Nadler, who hold MSU's top offices and direct the staggering machinery of its student government. Top boss is quiet, likeable Scotty MacLeod, who rode into the presidency on the crest of a hard-fought student election. Climaxing three years of service to MSU, Scotty took over this year the hard job of keeping organizations and students in tune with war needs. Grizzly Queen Betty Nadler of the charming smile acted as official hostess of the U as vice-president. Activity Girl Mary Bukvich, another charmer, kept Central Board minutes as secretary. Business manager Harry Hesser of basketball fame watched over student funds. The Big Four did their duties well. No remuneration but much glory. . . .

ASMSU

April showers bring campaign cigars, not May flowers, at MSU. Maneuvers, deals and intrigues flourish as various factions fight for feet in the political door during spring elections. Worth shooting for is a seat on Central Board, main governing body which forms the nucleus of student activities. The Board meets once a week to heckle a round of candy bars from some obliging member or okay a myriad of budgets under the cracking whip of faculty members Briggs and Badgley. Other duties include mulling over reports and decisions of ASMSU committees.

Committees

Why committees? Because ASMSU is an intricate organization whose officials rarely have time to attend to the countless administrative problems. Hand-picked by President MacLeod, ASMSU committees regulate the student extra-curricular life, major decisions being passed down the line to Central Board.

Important duties are organizing rallies, regulating publications, providing for student entertainment, keeping the university before the public. Committees come to life once or twice to perform these duties, then grow feeble and peter out for another year.

Montana Kaimin

The Montana Kaimin

... under Dean Ford's regime was thrown wide open to the student body. No longer a tool of the J School, low on staff members, cut to a twice weekly appearance, financially embarrassed, it carried on surprisingly well. Most notable factors in this year's issues were Editor Fenton's versatile tabloid makeups, some amazingly capable feature writing. Sophomore Peg Thrailkill, a mere woman, grew gray under the strain of trying to make the sheet pay its way. Jere Coffey and Mary Bukvich slaved, proved their salt...

Bigger and better than its predecessor, although still mimeographed, it presented an excellent, at times brilliant, array of stories, articles and poems. A subscription drive plus support from the faculty brought the mag security and success. In quality of material it might well be compared to the late, famed Frontier and Midland.

Alice Maskey, editor

On the second floor of the Student Union building is a small office. It has a linoleum floor, buff walls, a long table, a desk, a typewriter, a wastebasket, an ash tray—and a girl with red hair. It is she who created, such as it is, this book. Hers was not an easy task. This year's budget was cut in half. The staff was reduced to a tiny handful of upperclassmen plus a galaxy of freshmen who did little but clutter up the place. In spite of all this the courageous redhead, the third woman editor in Sentinel history, came through rather nobly. She lost weight and grade points in the process. But without the aid of the faithful few who stuck by her she would probably be quite dead by now. Among these was journalist Bob Sias, who wrote most of the copy and kept her supplied with cigarettes and morphine tablets during her darkest hours.

Helen Walterskirchen

Then there was Gloria Bugli who managed the office and supervised the freshman crew, and Evie Morris who spent innumerable hours taking pictures. Above all there was lovely Helen Walterskirchen, to whose talent the book owes all of its art work. And, pictured herewith, many more. . . .

Ed Gemberling, playing his first campus lead, blustered and shouted his way through the title role rather convincingly. Ellen McCrea handled herself capably as his be-draggled, much-beaten wife. Ana Holding, the perennial ingenue, fluttered coyly about the stage in the role of Marie, and Janie Mee sexed things up considerably as the sin-ridden Mrs. Muskat. Veteran Bob (I wanta be an actor and make love) Sias scored another personal triumph as the play's nasty antagonist. Mike O'Connell's settings, his first, were excellent.

... chose a most inopportune moment for its entrance into the Pacific Coast Conference as a full-fledged member. Faced with the toughest schedule a Montana team has had in decades, and an acute shortage of manpower . . . a time-honored Grizzly failing . . . the Montanans failed to break into the win column.

Several reasons for this dearth of Grizzly victories can be advanced. First, Montana State College did not grace the Grizzly schedule. In addition, the Grizzlies, in the year of our Lord 1942, had no less than three (3) head coaches, which is some kind of a Chinese record. Further, war conditions made impossible any monetary compensations to players by the Athletic Board. The men who composed the Montana team played because they loved the game.

We can be content to say this was not the Bruins' year. The players lacked size, experience, everything—perhaps—except heart.

Season

After a disastrous football season and with few veteran hoopsters returning, basketball prospects looked none too bright. But as the season progressed the fans fairly glowed with delight. A team branded as mediocre succeeded in winning fifteen games, lost nine—but to the roughest of competition. Captain Chuck Burgess proved himself the team's most dazzling sharpshooter by hooping 359 points to surpass Degroot's old season record by 78 points.

The season saw the fourth in this year's passing parade of coaches, Clyde Carpenter, taken by the armed forces. Carpenter was replaced by Missoula High School's Eddie Chinske who mentored both squads, gained nation-wide notice when a syndicated sportswriter cracked: "He's the only college coach who has his own farm team."

For the season's first game, Great Falls Army Air Base boys left their Norden bombsights to tangle with the Grizzlies. The Bombers bowed out, 55 to 26. December 27 brought Utah U to take the Grizzlies, 55 to 56. The next night the Grizzlies reversed the procedure. Score: 49-42. The boys then emerged from a four-game tourney with top percentage among the teams entered: Utah Aggies, Montana State, Idaho U. Following a pair of victories from Idaho Southern Branch came the ill-fated Bozeman sojourn. Two unhappy defeats: 55-45, 66-45. Gonzaga's Bulldogs moved to the campus to hand the locals a chastising, but the Grizzlies won the second game.

The Montanans journeyed westward to meet the Whitman Missionaries who went on a scoring spree. Result: 73-66. The next night they were properly boiled in oil. Close score: 54-53. The Grizzlies met the Gonzaga Bulldogs for two more games; found victory in the first, defeat in the second. At home again the boys smashed the much-touted Denver U aggregation, 66-61. The following night Denver sought revenge, got it. The score: 49-47.

Then a cloud of darkness fell on the local campus as the Bobcats took the first game in the championship series. In the second game, Chuck Burgess, tossing the last basket of his college hoop career, brought victory to the Grizzlies and a taste of revenge. But to the Bobcats, God bless 'em, went the state championship. . . .

Flying high

Through the summer and fall quarters Corbin was jammed with handsome Navy Air Corps trainees. Then came a deluge of army air cadets-to-be, who took over every residence hall on the campus. Such a mass of the military made MSU look like a second front, solved the manpower shortage for love-starved coeds.

Murals

Out of the surge of battle on a gore-soaked Clover Bowl field only one team emerged gloriously triumphant—the Navy V-5 trainees. Second in the league and first among fraternities was Phi Delta Theta. A basketball race that was nip-and-tuck from start to finish saw Sigma Nu take first place. Final results in swimming and bowling gave the Phi Delt championship titles in both departments. . . .

Advertising

On these pages are represented the firms whose support made this year-book possible. To them I extend my deepest appreciation. Handling this year's Sentinel advertising was no easy task. Without the aid of the faithful few on my staff the campaign might never have been successful. So, many thanks to all who gave me a hand, and a special word of gratitude to Tommy Robinson, Hugh Campbell, Don Heidel and Bill Miles.

Off to the library . . .

A word about buying on the spur of the moment . . .

Every one knows that careful planning makes for better buying. And this is especially true of clothes.

Clothes money has to do a special job these days. It's necessary to wartime morale for us to be well-dressed. At the same time the clothes we buy should cost as little as possible. War Bonds are much more important. Wardrobes should be planned to harmonize, so that a few clothes will provide variety. The basis of every woman's wardrobe is a good coat and dress. As always, we've planned our stock early so you can choose yours now, and pay for it in small weekly amounts. In that way you will have your apparel when you need it, without a big, all-at-once expenditure that might interfere with your regular purchases of War Bonds.

NOT an inch of our country has been devastated by bombs. Our people do not have to walk our streets with one eye cocked to the sky and both ears open for the warning to duck into a bomb shelter. In the past few months the trend has been in our favor in every theater of war. Our men, wherever they are, now are getting materials with which to fight and its effect will be felt in ever-increasing ratio.

IT IS unreasonable to suppose that any food will be allowed to spoil in the fields in 1943 for lack of containers or farm labor.

IT IS also unreasonable to believe our people will demand more than their share of the things we have.

YOUR RED & WHITE Grocer is on watch to protect you, his customer.

Increased Production for Victory

Every hour of the day the Anaconda Copper Mining Company and its associated companies are stepping up production of copper, zinc, manganese and other metals.

Thousands of Montanans are employed by the Anaconda Copper Mining Company. They are engaged in vital war work in the Butte mines; at the Reduction plants in Anaconda and Great Falls; at the Chrome operations in Eastern Montana, and in the forest and lumber mills of Western Montana.

Victory is the goal of these soldiers of production.

Anaconda Copper Mining Company

Montana Lumber Is Doing a War Job

Cargoes of war munitions and other supplies destined to the war fronts wear overcoats of Montana lumber.

At munition plants, defense housing projects, at shipyards and factories, products of Montana forests and mills are serving a war purpose.

We on the home front know that Montana lumber is first choice for practical building and repair purposes.

The Last Word

. . . on college annuals, and especially this one. Most yearbooks are photographic masterpieces, cold tributes to the genius of their editors. But this book is not; it wasn't meant to be. It's a panorama of life on the Montana campus during these past months, the last in school for so many. If it preserves on paper the memories of your friends and your university, if it binds us all together with a love for Montana, then it's a success. We didn't have much to work with. A meagre budget, a small staff, a rapidly changing school. There weren't many of us, but to those that were, my sincere thanks. There was Neal Rasmussen who saved a financially dying Sentinel from an early grave, and Helen Walterskirchen—without her beautiful art work this book might not have materialized. And to Photographer Evie Morris, chief reason the freshmen came to work at all, my many thanks, and also to Bob Sias, who though struggling with other activities or a hangover, kept at the job till the bitter end. There are others . . . Gloria Bugli, Bertha McKee, Lorraine Griffith, Ed Voldseth, Karma Johnson, Laila Stranahan. Thanks to Artists Ethel Regan and Virginia Frach, Photographers Lloyd Eastman and Ed Dolan, and also to Ashton, Angstman, Grigsby and Smartt . . . Thanks to all of you for living through my anxious looks and tired temper, for plugging thru endless duties and for, perhaps, seeing your year's work dragged through the mire of student opinion. That's all. The last word. . .

Aline Mosby
